

SANDRA: - That fete match ain go start, all you going on like that.

JACK: - Listen na. Was Queen Victoria who the mightiest and she get so much things named after her - Victoria Hospital. It was Victoria Park before it get to Mindoo Phillip legacy.

MIKE:- So you see. You see they doan want people to know they name Queen's Park Savannah after Queen Victoria.

INDRA:- I see. I see. See.

JACK:- Mindoo was born in Marchand. His mother scored one hundred for him. One hundred years before she gone. He was Groundsman, Referee, Umpire, Coach. A National Hero.

SANDRA:- See. See. Saw.

MIKE: - Another four.

JACK:- A conquering cricketer is what you see. Mindoo was born on 27th August 1929. He batted at No.6 for the Windward Islands team played together with Ferrel Bam Charles, a pace bowler. They could go no further. In fact in October 1978 The St. Lucia National Cricket Association decided to ask the Castries City Council to re-name Victoria Park after Mindoo.

TOM: - That is why dey bury him dere.
